Dear Ed:

The lady to whom copy of this letter is addressed would like to have for the Library of her good company a copy of your address to the Anniversary Meeting of the Committee for Economic Development on the subject - "Are the Soviets Winning the Battle of Production? "

It is a pleasure to bring to your attention your burgeoning fame. I am sure you have a good supply of copies available, and would appreciate your sending one on to her. If you don't have one at hand, I shall loan her my copy.

Warmest regards,

Sincerely,

Charles Meredith White
